when l-theanine is combined with caffeine, focusing is greatly improved when you have hard cognitive tasks to perform and the combo is better than if each were taken separately.